

Dear You,

I am grateful for you!

You are wonderfully and fearfully made.

You are beautiful.

*You are special to me – and more importantly, to Our Creator.
In this great big world, with as many people as there are, you stand apart as a fantastically unique individual.*

And, while we may sometimes carry similar burdens, or share the same outlook, fears, and successes, there is nobody else like you in this world.

You, and your story, amaze me!

*Even if you haven't figured out what it is yet, you have a purpose in
this world.*

Without you, the world would be a little darker... a little dimmer.

And you help make this world a special place!
